Exceptional Wildlife Viewing & Stunning Landscapes

The Experience - Private Tour - 2 to 2.5 days & 3 nights

Day 1 - Afternoon - Transfer to pre tour B&B at Scottsdale

Day 1 - Evening option - Canopy Capers and campfire dinner

Day 2 - Mt William National Park in the Bay of Fires Region

Day 3 - Spectacular wildlife viewing & wilderness tour (Quoll Patrol)

Day 1 - Canopy Capers - Optional

Enjoy the quest to view for the elusive platypus and capture the timeless ambience of Tasmania's bush. Relax to the afternoon sounds of the bush chorus from nearby birds, enjoy a campfire dinner and a nocturnal walk in the forest - overnight at Beulah

Day 2 - Mt William National Park

Pursue the monotreme double in platypus and echidna before travelling to the far north east corner of Tasmania to Mt. William National Park. Take a stroll on the stunning white pristine beaches in the Bay of Fires region and lunch with the local wallabies. The Forester kangaroo and the wombat are just a couple of the inhabitants who share this coastal National Park with over one hundred species of birdlife.

Overnight: Beulah Heritage in Scottsdale

Dinner: In-house

Day 3 - Ben Lomond & Quoll Patrol

Depart Scottsdale for Ben Lomond National Park, a spectacular mountain of dolerite columns and scree slopes. Impressive views and a magnificent array of alpine vegetation are on offer. After a picnic lunch we travel to Evercreech Forest Reserve and visit the world's tallest white gum trees before travelling to the Tyne Valley for a campfire dinner with the kangaroos. Relax by the camp fire as our field of dreams comes alive with eastern quolls, brush-tail possums & Tasmanian pademelons visiting the camp fire while Bennett's wallaby and wombats graze close-by

Overnight: Beulah B&B in Scottsdale;

Dinner: On tour (optional hikes available)

(Evercreech visit is time permitting subject to daylight)
