

White Knights & Ben Lomond

North East Tasmania's Stunning Wilderness

Evercreech Forest Reserve and Ben Lomond National Park

The Experience

Circuit Drive - Go off the beaten track to see some of the spectacular and dramatic north eastern Tasmanian wilderness landscapes. Visit the Fingal Forests to see the White Knights at Evercreech Forest Reserve before moving on to Ben Lomond National Park for sensational alpine views.

The Fingal Forests

Evercreech Forest Reserve - An impressive natural reserve located in north east Tasmania. See the world's tallest white gums (over 90 metres) and aptly named the "White Knights". Explore the short bush-land walking tracks and wander through the forest alongside the headwaters of the river and stand in awe amongst the ancient tree ferns. Leaving Evercreech we travel via the roads of Roses Tier with plantations and where native forests consist of tree and understory species that are native to Tasmania. They are complex and diverse ecosystems comprising communities of species, fungi, insects and fauna, and the relationships between them.

Lunch - Picnic Lunch

Ben Lomond National Park

The spectacular Ben Lomond is the largest alpine plateau in Tasmania, and is a mountain environment with extensive and dramatic dolerite cliffs and columns. Its scree slopes, swirling mists and frost-stunted forests are reminiscent of a Tolkien landscape. We drive up Jacobs Ladder, a series of hairpin bends to marvel at the breathtaking view from the platform at the top. The Ben Lomond plateau has 8 of the 20 highest peaks in Tasmania and it has the highest drivable point in Tasmania and where Bennett's wallaby and wombats may be seen in daylight hours.
