Canopy Capers
Magic of the Forest After Dark

Platypus, Wildlife & the Charm of the Tasmanian Forest

The Experience - Seasonal Departures 2.30 pm to 5.30 pm

Hunt for the fascinating platypus before travelling to a nearby bush cabin surrounded by native forest. Relax to the afternoon sounds of the bush chorus from the forest birds; enjoy a campfire dinner complimented by Tassie beverages before the sun sets when you take a guided walk into the forest to see the clingers and climbers of the Tassie bush

The Venue & Cabin

Capture the timeless ambience of Tasmania's bush in this forest setting complete with a convict built pioneers cabin. Enjoy a campfire dinner inside or out and take one of the short on site walks to discover the secrets of the bush

Campfire Dinner

Be treated to a campfire dinner of local produce, prepared and cooked on site. The 3 course dinner will be seasonal and will include premium Tasmania produce accompanied by Tasmanian beverages - Food restrictions and allergies must be advised.

The Forest Comes Alive

As the sun goes down, hear the chuckling of kookaburras and sit by the campfire as daylight fades and see the wildlife movements in the Tasmanian bush. Experience the magic as wildlife appear from the bushes and trees. Gaze into the trees and see the strongly arboreal ringtail possums emerge above from their dreys seeking their nightly meal. Wait quietly and the brush-tail possums wander past in search of some tasty bush offerings. Explore the many nocturnal after-dark wonders of Tasmania's native forest with brush-tail possums appearing from high in the trees and hear the bumps of the night as the Tasmanian pademelons go about their business.

Duration: tour duration is governed by available daylight
Departing: Scottsdale - seasonal departure times 2.30 - 5.30 pm
Bookable: Available in a Pepper Bush extended tour with a Quoll Patrol

July 2025