

Bushies Quoll Patrol & Canopy Capers

Tasmanian Wildlife, Forest Enchantment & Campfire Dining

The Experience - Private Tour - 2 days & 2 nights

Day 1 - Optional extension - tour at Trowunna Wildlife - on request

Day 1 - Late afternoon/evening - Canopy Capers tour

Day 2 - Ben Lomond National Park followed by the Quoll Patrol tour

Day 3 - Self-drive or Pepper Bush transfer departure

Day 1 - Trowunna Wildlife Park - Optional Extension

Departing Launceston, we travel to Trowunna Wildlife Sanctuary for a private tour to meet a wombat and the Tasmanian devils, spotted tailed quolls and other fur and feathered residents

Day 1 - Canopy Capers

Seasonal departures - Hunt for the fascinating platypus and relax to the afternoon sounds of the bush chorus from nearby birds. Enjoy a campfire dinner with a Tassie beverage while you capture the timeless ambience of Tasmania's forests. As the sun goes down, hear the chuckling of kookaburras, and wait by the campfire as light fades to get an understanding and appreciation of wildlife movements in the Tasmanian bush. Experience the excitement and magic as nocturnal creatures appear from the bushes and trees and go about their business in looking for their nightly tasty forest feed.

Overnight: in Scottsdale - dinner on tour

Day 2 - Ben Lomond & Quoll Patrol

11.30 am tour departs to explore the local waterways for platypus and birdlife - lunch - visit Ben Lomond National Park, a spectacular mountain of dolerite columns and scree slopes and Tasmania's highest drivable point. Leaving Ben Lomon, travel through the Roses Tier forests to the Tyne Valley for a campfire dinner with the kangaroos. Relax by the campfire as our field of dreams comes alive with eastern quolls, brush-tail possums and Tasmanian pademelons visiting the campfire while Bennett's wallabies and wombats graze close-by.
