

Quoll Patrol with Puggles & Bubbles

Sensational Wildlife Viewing, Wilderness, Platypus & Vineyards

The Experience - 2 days & 2 nights

Day 1 & 3 - Self-drive or Pepper Bush transfer arrival & departure

Day 1 - Ben Lomond National Park & Quoll Patrol

Day 2 - Platypus & Sparkling Pipers Wine Tour

Day 1 - Ben Lomond & Quoll Patrol

Self-drive to Scottsdale or Pepper Bush transfer from Launceston for an early afternoon departure. Visit Ben Lomond National Park, a spectacular mountain of dolerite columns and scree slopes. See impressive views and a stunning array of alpine vegetation. We travel via the Roses Tier forests or Tombstone Creek Forest Reserve to the Tyne Valley for a campfire dinner with the kangaroos. Relax by the camp fire as our field of dreams comes alive with eastern quolls, brush-tail possums and Tasmanian pademelons visiting the campfire as wallabies and wombats graze close-by.

Overnight: Beulah Heritage B&B

Dinner: Campfire dinner on tour

Day 2 - Platypus Viewing and Sparkling Pipers Wine Tour

Depart at 9.30 am to travel a short distance to view the fascinating platypus before travelling to the Pipers River and Pipers Brook wine region in northeast Tasmania. The diverse landscapes compliment visits to the vineyard cellar doors, perfect for a day out. With a climate close to that of Champagne in France, this region is known simply as 'Sparkling Tasmania'. Today we visit the Bay of Fires Vineyard to taste the Eddystone Point & House of Arras wine varieties. The luxury sparkling wine house at Jansz Tasmania and impressive Delamere Vineyard Cellar Door are also on the days tour route. Pipers Brook vineyard and Nadine's Café also offer fine wine tasting and lunch offerings. Return to Beulah around 4.00 pm

Overnight: Beulah Heritage B&B

Dinner: In-house

Duration: Private Touring 2 days / 2 nights (2 adult minimum)

Option: Self-drive or Pepper Bush transfers to Scottsdale

Departure: Day 3 - Self-drive or Pepper Bush transfer after breakfast
